In order for a book to qualify for the Tyendinaga Township Public Library 2017 Reading Challenge, the book must be finished in 2017.

Let the Librarians know when you have finished your book as we will be keeping track in the Library. A black binder, found at the circulation desk will house each Patrons reading challenge, alphabetical by first name.

For those who are able to check off each reading challenge by December 15th, 2017 – your name will be entered into a draw for a $50 Chapters gift card. If you do finish the challenge, that means you have read 42 books!

Let your reading adventure begin!
